

QUICK RELEASE SIDEMOUNT FITTING

Call today to get the very latest addition to the range of superior quality stainless steel mounts from Bainbridge International, Inc.

The new Q/R ("Quick-Release") Side Mount is a unique new style marine fitting that allows almost instant frame removal from the boat, by way of a specially designed release mechanism. A simple push of the spring loaded release button ejects the integral eye-end from the low-profile base mount, leaving minimal obstruction.

This top quality product is manufactured from premium grade 316L Stainless Steel and superbly engineered to provide superior performance, and years of trouble free service. Call to order today.
